The Song of the Chattahoochee

Out of the hills of Habersham,
Down the valleys of Hall,
I Hurry amain to reach the plain,
Run the rapid and leap the fall,
Split at the rock and together again,
Accept my bed, or narrow or wide,
And flee from folly on every side
With a lover's pain to attain the plain
Far from the hills of Habersham,
Far from the valleys of Hall.

High o'er the hills of Habersham,
Veiling the valleys of Hall,
The hickory told me manifold
Fair tales of shade, the poplar tall
Wrought me her shadowy self to hold,
The chestnut, the oak, the walnut, the pine,
Overleaning, with flickering meaning and sign,
Said, "Pass not, so cold, these manifold
Deep Shades of the hills of Habersham,
These glades in the valleys of Hall."

But oh, not the hills of Habersham,
And oh, not the valleys of Hall
Avail: I am fain for to water the plain.
Downward the voices of Duty call -
Downward to toil and be mixed with the main,
The dry fields burn, and the mills are to turn,
And a myriad flowers mortally yearn,
And the lordly main from beyond the plain
Calls o'er the hills of Habersham,
Calls through the valleys of Hall.

Watch out Carter Barron!

I wish someone would give me an office.

Only a mother could love that face.

One for you and one for me.

The living end --

Now, son . . .

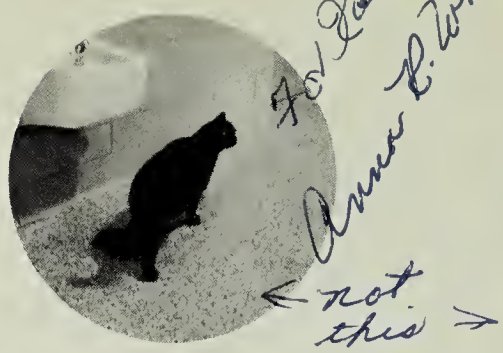
We are on opposite sides in a dishwater test.

What do you mean -- my books were all scratched?

No, I didn't cut my thumb on the jig saw -- I hit it with a hammer.

Over the river and through the Woodson.

We belong to the clean plate club.



Who says the fountains are too low?

I wish they wouldn't ask so many questions.

A limbo is an upside down high jump.

I'd answer this thing if I could get out of this locker.

I can't see anything in this microscope.

Just because I took her surfer cross.

The sign says there's a school somewhere.

I wonder if Guttenberg started out this way.

What a test that was!

Who me? I wouldn't think of it.

Hi there . . . !

What do you mean, turn around? I am around.

Teachers DO smile.

Everybody's upside down except me.

Did I really win?

New fangled ice machine.

I love me.

"The thinker and the orator."

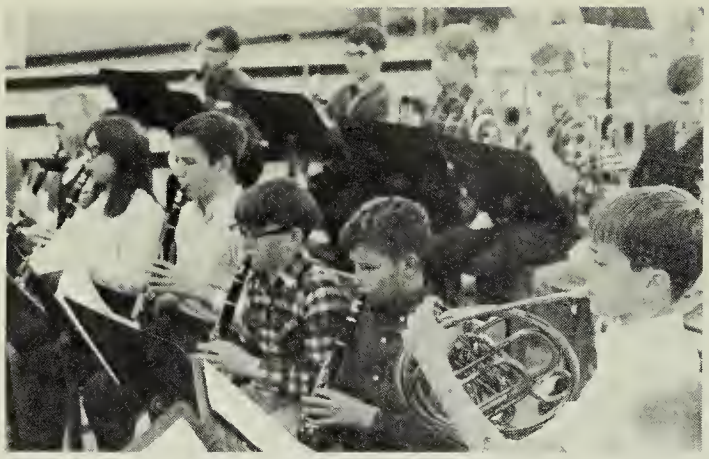
The end of a perfect day.

Now, if I only knew what he was talking about.

Who threw that spitball?

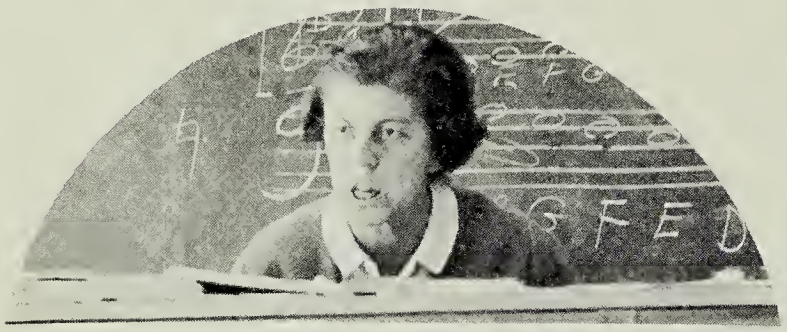
Is this the way to higher learning?

Dressed in the cafeteria and I'm still late.

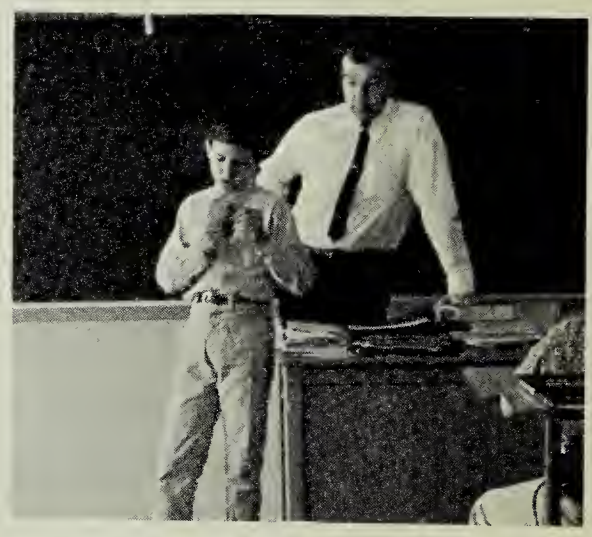


A French horn in the clarinet section?

Of course, this isn't a drum, silly.



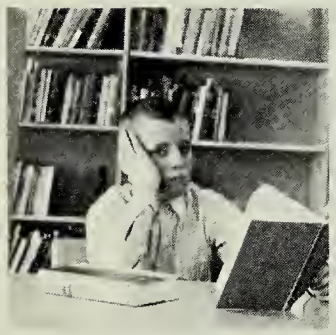
Please note . . .



The label said they were sanforized.

I only ripped it three times.

If they spill one more tray, they're going to get it.



"Oh, for June"

I don't hear any noise in this cafeteria.

The Andrew Sisters sure have changed.

Batman . . . Where?

Sew? With this thing?
